What is Wonderful about Compassion and Peace at Belfast School?

- nice kids
- everyone likes to play with each other
- -excellent teachers
- they make everything fun by making games with the kids, -
- teachers are nice,
- they don't you down with tons of homework,
- Like to go outside and have fun. They make bonds with you.
- They don't just teach, they're your friends too.)
- They care about you
- The teachers are rad
- They turn learning into fun games
- They bake stuff with us

- You have to share and if somebody asks you to join in your game you always let them
- Let others play and share – include others
- Respecting others
- Not bullying others
- Be friends with everyone
- Respect each other
- If you are compassionate to someone, they will be grateful and nice to you (they will be compassionate back)
- Compassion first, peace follows
- What are some things that we could do so that peace would follow?
- - Help someone if they're hurt
- Treat others the way you want to be treated
- What goes around comes around

- Bigger kids in 5/6; if a kindergarten kid or grade one wants to play with us, we let them.
- Let younger kids play with you
- We are the oldest kids in the school and you can be a role model
- You always see someone wearing a smile
- Never exclude
- Always include
- The bigger kids are the role models and the little kids will watch you. Little kids follow your lead
- Whatever you do, the younger ones are going to follow
- What compassionate actions have you seen at Belfast?
- Kids have choice

- When students are good people, it helps to create peace
